

This area is very productive agricultural land and putting it into concrete solar farms is a huge blow to our agricultural and food sector. This is all part of a broken model of national grid ...

