

What is Namibia's green hydrogen agreement?

Member News The agreement governs the process for the development, implementation and operation of Namibia's first large and export-oriented green hydrogen project and puts Namibia on the map as a global hub for green hydrogen production.

Is Namibia a global hub for green hydrogen production?

In fact, the pioneering FIA puts Namibia on the map as a global hub for green hydrogen production. The Southern African-German Chamber of Commerce & Industry wishes our member company Enertrag and the Namibian Government much success in the implementation of the ambitious and groundbreaking Hyphen project.

What is SDG Namibia one?

Mercia Geises, CEO of Nam-H2 Fund Managers, said: "SDG Namibia One was established in 2023 to advance projects in the energy transition and green hydrogen sector, acting as a catalyst to Namibia's Green Industrialisation Plan.

Why is Namibia a good place to invest in green iron?

Namibia is uniquely positioned for the development of green iron given its abundant renewable energy resources and raw materials, robust infrastructure, skilled workforce, favourable and stable governance structures and legal frameworks as well as the ambition to become an important logistics hub for southern Africa.

Why should Namibia sign the FIA?

The signing of the FIA is a great leap forward for Namibia's and Southern Africa's ambition to develop a green hydrogen sector and foster green economic development. In fact, the pioneering FIA puts Namibia on the map as a global hub for green hydrogen production.

Who is investing in SDG Namibia?

SDG Namibia One announced a EUR 25 million investment from the European Commission at the Global Hydrogen Summit in September 2024. Additional investors include Dutch development financing institution Invest International and USAID Southern Africa Mobilizing Investment.

It seeks to establish Namibia's first large-scale vertically integrated green hydrogen project in the Tsau/Khaeb national park to produce 300,000 tonnes per year of hydrogen for regional and global markets, either in ...

Namibia, with its vast natural resources and ideal geographic conditions, is set to become a global leader in green hydrogen production. GreenGo Energy is poised to contribute significantly to this transformation by ...

Namibia big green ltd

Belgian shipping company, Compagnie Maritime Belge (CMB) says it expects green hydrogen production in Namibia to start in the fourth quarter, a project that could see N$70 billion (US$3.5 billion) in investment ...

Namibia, 24 May 2023 - The Cabinet of the Government of the Republic of Namibia (GRN) has approved the entry into an agreement with Hyphen Hydrogen Energy (Hyphen) to govern the ...

Windhoek, 25 October 2024: Namibia Hydrogen Fund Managers (Pty) Limited ("Nam-H2 Fund Managers"), an infrastructure fund manager focused on incubating Namibia's green hydrogen sector, has signed a Development ...

With a planned start in late 2024, Oshivela will be one of the biggest primary production sites of green iron worldwide. Already at this stage, the project is expected to avoid 27,000 CO₂ emissions per year, equivalent to 50% of the ...

Hyphen Hydrogen Energy (Pty) Ltd, which won a preferred bidder status for a USD-10-billion (EUR 9.32bn) green hydrogen hub project in Namibia late last year, is targeting a construction launch in January 2025.

Web: <https://taolaba.co.za>

